Welcome to Twinkl Foundation!

This comprehensive package of EYFS planning and assessment materials has been created in accordance with the EYFS Statutory Framework and accompanying Development Matters document. We recognise that practitioners within the EYFS plan and assess to ensure that they meet the individual interests and needs of the children within their setting; therefore Twinkl Foundation has been created to be as adaptable and flexible as possible.

The resources have been developed by experienced early years teachers and produced by our team of creative designers. We are constantly listening to both the needs of EYFS practitioners and new initiatives within early years education. These are incorporated quickly into new resources to aid planning and assessment and the collection is added to daily.

This overview is your guide to Twinkl Foundation and should cover any questions you have. If there is something you need help with then please don’t hesitate to get in touch.

An Introduction to Foundation Planning for EYFS

Whether your setting follows a more child-led approach to planning or prefers to guide learning through themes and topics, you will find inspiring and creative ideas to incorporate into your everyday practice.

There is a vast range of different types of plans within Twinkl Foundation to cater for different approaches, from broad ideas to use as inspirational starting points, to more detailed step-by-step planning. All plans are editable, giving ultimate flexibility.

Our planning covers a wide range of themes and stories, so is perfect for providing ideas and inspiration to help follow up on the interests of the children in your setting. Equally, we have a new range of plans which explicitly cover the Early Years Outcomes. These engaging activities can be used in conjunction with ongoing assessment to help meet the individual next steps of the children in your setting.

Bumper Planning Packs

These Bumper Packs pull together a range of the planning materials mentioned in this guide, all in one handy place. They are based on either a theme, story or specific Early Years Outcome.

Adult Input Planning Packs

These packs contain a range of Adult Input Plans which support a particular theme, story or specific Early Years Outcome. Along with these plans, there are also Home Learning Challenges so that learning can be continued at home. The next page provides more details about this specific type of plan:
Adult Input Plans

These plans give ideas for creative and inspiring activities through which adults can spark children's interest, arouse curiosity and provoke further independent learning. They are completely editable so that you can adapt them to meet the needs of your setting and come with accompanying Twinkl resources, where relevant. You can see our range of Adult Input Plans here.

An Introduction to Foundation Assessment for EYFS

We recognise the importance of using assessments effectively to support learning and development, identify children requiring additional support, engage parents and feed into curriculum planning. We have therefore created a vast range of materials linked to the EYFS areas of learning and development, including:

- The Characteristics of Effective Learning
- The Early Years Outcomes from birth to Early Learning Goals
- The EYFS Profile, including ‘Exceeding’ descriptors

This includes tracking documents and spreadsheets, a variety of observation templates, on entry assessments, next steps, report writing and learning journey resources. Below is a small selection of examples:
